

- Established on January 1, 2004 as a result of the merger between Meiji Life and The Yasuda Mutual Life, both of which date back to the 1880's
- Number one provider of group life insurance in terms of coverage in force in Japan
- Provides group insurance services to about 280 foreign multinationals in Japan
- Meiji Yasuda Life holds assets of JPY 26.7 trillion (approx. USD 226.9 billion) as of March 31, 2007
- Premium income for the fiscal year 2006 equals JPY 2.56 trillion (approx. USD 21.7 billion)
- Ratings: "A-" by Standard & Poor's, "A+" by Fitch, "A (Excellent)" by A.M. Best, "A+" by JCR and "A+" by R&I as of October 31, 2007
- Member of the Swiss Life Network since 1980

Special Advantages

- Quality products at competitive rates which meet a wide range of insurance needs
- A broad range of consulting services to respond to diverse and sophisticated customers' needs
- Well developed and nationwide service network
- Products featuring enhanced medical coverage and a variety of long-term care related services
- Coverages include group term life, defined benefit pension plans, defined contribution pension plans, supplemental group medical insurance and individual life insurance and annuities

Coverages and Products

Types of Benefit:

- ★ Group Life
- ★ Accidental Death and Dismemberment (rider)
- ❖ Old Age Pension / Lump Sum (DB and DC plans)
- ❖ Disability Pension / Lump Sum (rider)
- ❖ Medical (as a rider poolable)
- ❖ Critical Illness (individuals only)
- ❖ Endowment (individuals only)

-
- ★ Coverage available and poolable
 - ❖ Coverage available